Saint John's Lutheran Church
10 Archdale Street
Charleston
Charleston County
South Carolina

Historical Data:

This church represents the oldest German Congregation in the city. They were incorporated in 1783. Lacking a building of their own, the Lutherans used the French Huguenot Church. June 24, 1764, the first Saint John's was dedicated. The present building was completed and dedicated in 1818.
